CRAZY FOOD

Are you a gourmet looking for new experiences? Do you want to impress your friends at dinner? Or are you just curious by nature? CRAZY FOOD will surprise you page after page : bread lamps, candycane shotglasses, plates that talk, edible works of art, snail eggs, incredible restaurants... You might not want to try all of the items in the book, but it's great to know that there are people out there crazy enough to think about them.
