

JAPAN

From Tokyo and Kyoto to geishas, gardens and paradise beaches

Contents

Introduction to Japan
Facts about Japan
Staying in Japan
Quick answers
Tokyo – the future is here
Tsukiji and Japanese kitchen knives
Sumo
The way of the tea
Do – The way
The mountains
Onsen
Magome & Tsumago
Samurai
Japanese delicacies and sake
Kyoto – the city of cultural treasures
Shinto and Buddhism
Dragons in Japan
Geisha
Four fantastic gardens in Kyoto
Calligraphy
Okinawa – the islands of the south

Japan

Från Tokyo och Kyoto till geishor, trädgårdar och paradistränder

Sara Alinder & Magnus Jonsson

210x260, 240p

This book takes the reader on a journey through the most beautiful parts of Japan. With over 350 color photos and interesting text, it gives the reader a sweeping overview of this beautiful and fascinating country.

In this book we follow the photographer Sara Alinder and the writer Magnus Jonsson to a country most of us know something about, but very few know much about – Japan. Explore the highlights of Tokyo, the cultural treasures of Kyoto, tropical islands in the south and well-preserved villages in the mountains. Meet geishas, sumo wrestlers and completely ordinary Japanese people. Experience world famous temples and hidden beaches. Walk through dense jungles, neon-filled city streets and bounding mountains.

About the authors

Sara Alinder is a photographer and graphic designer and won the Swedish Publishing Award for Design 2010. Magnus Jonsson is a writer and writes books, for magazines and newspapers. Together they own the small Publishing house Horisont Förlag.

